Memo No.KW 9/1-2024 lib(3)

Dated: 28/02/2025

Subject: Advisory Regarding Procurement of Competitive Examination Books for College Libraries.

*****

With reference to the mandate of the Government of Haryana to facilitate study materials for competitive examinations, all Principals of Government Colleges in Haryana are hereby advised to ensure the timely procurement of books related to various competitive examinations. This initiative aims to support students in preparing for competitive exams alongside their academic studies.

The study materials may cover the following competitive examinations and be sourced from reputed and renowned publishers in both Hindi and English languages with latest edition:

- Civil Services Exams: UPSC, HCS, and other State and Central Level Civil Services Examinations.
- Teaching Eligibility Exams: UGC-NET, CSIR-NET, HTET, CTET.
- Other Competitive Exams: Haryana CET, CLAT, AFCAT, and all Group A, B, C, and D examinations conducted at the State and Central levels.
- However list is not exhaustive. Principal may include any other competitive books/academic books as well.

It is essential to procure books that are current and aligned with the latest exam patterns and syllabi. Additionally, Principals are requested to periodically update the study resources in their respective libraries based on students' needs and feedback.

Compliance with this advisory will enable students to access quality study materials within their college premises, thereby enhancing their preparation for competitive examinations.

This advisory may be given due importance, and books may be purchased as quickly as possible so that students preparation will not hamper.
